GUEST LIST

PLANETARY DEFENSE COORDINATION OFFICE STAFF

Vampires

Efficient, loyal, and eerily composed, Esme Willow's staff hail from the ranks of the Northern Vampire bloodline and serve within the Planetary Defense Coordination Office in Washington, D.C. Though most once passed as Human, their true nature has recently come to light—along with their unmatched skill in politics, logistics, and quiet intimidation.

They move as one, speak only when necessary, and execute Esme's orders with surgical precision. Whether managing inter-faction negotiations or reviewing orbital threat data, they never break ranks and never second-guess their leader. To the untrained eye, they appear to be polished government officials. To everyone else, they are the shadow that trails power.

THE COVENANT OF CRACKED STONE

Rogue Sorcerers

Unruly, unpredictable, and dangerously creative, this band of spell-slinging outcasts follows Plague Redwood not out of loyalty, but out of shared disdain for authority. Cast out from formal covens or walked away willingly, these rogue Sorcerers specialize in unstable magic, fringe theory, and general mayhem. Each one poses a walking hazard, and some claim to communicate with spirits that may or may not be real. Together, they form an erratic but oddly effective unit, bound by Plague's vision of Sorcerer supremacy. If they show up in New Orleans, expect sparks to fly... literally.

GREENLAND WEREWOLF CLAN

Werewolves

Led by the ice-cold Alpha Ulrich Lynx and his fierce sister, Kestrel, the Greenland Werewolves are one of the oldest and most disciplined packs on Earth. Hailing from the remote and frozen wilderness, this clan values silence, strategy, and unwavering loyalty. They operate like a well-oiled machine—efficient, brutal if needed, and unshakably united.

Members of the Greenland pack rarely show emotion and never act without purpose. Their presence at the New Orleans summit is as much a warning as it is a contribution. While others talk and squabble, the Greenland Werewolves listen, calculate, and wait for the perfect moment to strike—or protect.

NASA ROCKET SCIENTISTS

Humans

This elite group of NASA scientists from Houston works directly under the notoriously intense and brilliant Holly Nox. Tasked with building the two-stage rocket designed to intercept the Cluster of Keres, they are among the brightest minds on Earth—engineers, physicists, propulsion experts, and problem-solvers who thrive under pressure (and Holly's sharp tongue). Known for their technical genius and around-the-clock dedication, the team is respected and slightly feared by the rest of the Human Faction. They follow Holly's lead with precision and have little patience for mystical nonsense, preferring cold, hard science over supernatural speculation. If you hear humming machines, scribbled equations, or a muttered "don't touch that," you've probably found one of them.

KILLIAN CROSS

Vampire

Killian Cross is a night-shift ER doctor in Sydney, Australia. Until recently, no one knew he was a Vampire. Now he's joined the space mission to offer medical support—though his Southern Vampire temper may be more volatile than his patients.

PALOMA DEL SOL

Werewolf

Werewolf

Zohar Highmore is a strikingly handsome Alpha from Australia. His clan is known as the most relaxed in the Werewolf Faction. Although he doesn't take life too seriously, Zohar is nearing 250 years old—and with a life expectancy of 300 years, he has seen more than most.

JULIEN TREMBLAY

A ruthless queen who doesn't play well with others and always gets what she wants.

KADIR EVILIAN

Sorcerer

Kadir Evilian, head warlock of Order Thirteen, is every bit as rebellious as his title suggests. Reckless and power-hungry, Kadir dreams of coming out to the humans—not to connect, but to conquer. He's not going to attend to make alliances. He's attending for domination.

CIAR CLENNAN

Werewolf

Francois's vampires never gave up the taste for human blood—and he sees no reason they should start now.

CYRENA CRYPT

Sorcerer

Cyrena Crypt reigns as one of the most powerful witches in the Royal Ravenblood Coven—Order One, to be exact. Though she's sworn by the ancient Treaty of Crimea (1353) only to use magic for self-defense or secrecy, Cyrena's been known to bend the rules to pursue her desires. Her day job?
