GUESTS

BELLA STARRY

Waitress at the Gravestone Saloon

Bella Starry is a recent widow who grew up on a farm in Pug Valley, West Virginia. She was a member of the infamous Hatplain family amid a lethal feud over property lines with their Kentucky neighbors, the McToys. On the one hand, Bella is an educated lady and an accomplished pianist. On the other hand, she's a notorious outlaw who has served time in federal prison for horse thievery and stagecoach robberies.

CALAMITY JANIE

U.S. Army Scout

The tall-tale-telling Calamity Janie is a force to be reckoned with! Former Great Plains cattle herder turned U.S. scout - this rugged lady used to be a trick shooter in Bronco Bill's traveling Wild Western Show. It would be best if you didn't double-cross this gal, as she's not called Calamity Janie for nothing.

WYLIE ARP

Co-Owner of the Gravestone Saloon

An ex-lawman from Duck City, Wylie Arp recently moved to Gravestone with his brothers and longtime flame, Josephine Marco. Wylie is a Civil War veteran who desperately needs a change of pace and a more relaxing way of life. He recently became the co-owner of the Gravestone Saloon. Wylie has clarified that he doesn't intend to be a lawman again.

ABBY OAKLEY

Exhibition Sharpshooter

Abby Oakley is a feisty exhibition sharpshooter in Bronco Bill's Traveling Wild Western Show. Known by the fans of her show as Abby Sure Shot, she is rumored to be able to shoot the ashes of a cigar from across the room! However, Abby has recently become quite intolerable with her egocentricity.

DOC GALADAY

Doctor and Co-Owner of the Gravestone Saloon

Doc Galaday is Wylie Arp's right-hand man, but rides the fence on both sides of the law. For this reason, his reputation terrifies the outlaws of the Wild West. Doc is a physician by trade, but his tuberculosis has drastically reduced his number of patients. As a result, he often supplements his income with gambling.

GUESTS

KATIE FISHMAN

Waitress at the Gravestone Saloon

Katie Fishman helped put the 'wild' in the phrase 'Wild West!' As Doc Galaday's longtime girlfriend, she's also struggled to stay on the right side of the law. Doc's solid friendship with the ex-lawman Wylie Arp has proven to be a positive force with this pair.

WAVY WILL BRONCHUS

Leader of The Ranchers

Wavy Will Bronchus is the leader of the loosely organized criminal faction, The Ranchers. A sorted group of cattle rustlers, thieves, and even murderers, this group has invaded the now lawless town of Gravestone. The townsfolk are optimistic that Wylie Arp can reinstate law and order on the streets, but Wavy Will has vowed never to let that happen.

JAMES JESSE

American Outlaw

The poetic James Jesse has always veered on the wrong side of the law since he could walk! He's a member of the Jesse-Young gang, composed of a band of brothers. During the Civil War, he engaged in guerrilla warfare. Today, there's a massive reward for his capture by the U.S. government for his many crimes of bank robbing, horse thievery, and even murder.

JOSEPHINE MARCO

Entrepreneur & Girlfriend of Wylie Arp

Josephine Marco made a fortune as an entrepreneur in the California Gold Rush when she was only fifteen. She later traveled in her stagecoach through the Wild West, searching for the next booming town. She eventually met her true love, Wylie Arp. Ever since these two met, they've been inseparable. She's the main reason Wylie left his career as the Duck City Sheriff. They moved to Gravestone to settle down, get married, and raise a family.

BRONCO BILL

Traveling Entertainer

Bronco Bill always had a knack for the arts. He's a calm, self-contained individual with a great sense of humor. He's assembled a nomadic brigade of entertainers called Bronco Bill's Traveling Wild Western Show. His troupe travels around the U.S. to perform their eclectic show of bronco riding, roping, trick shooting, and even Civil War reenactments.
