

HOST CHARACTER LIST - PLAYERS #25-32+ EXPANSION PACK #3

6 Required Players, 2 Optional, all are gender-flex where gender is not specified or relevant. One is an expandable team leader to expand the game further.

These suspect characters #25-32 are included in the boxed set (party pack):
Kits D-F (see the following page for the breakdown of kits).

#	ASSIGNED TO:	CHARACTER	CHARACTER DESCRIPTION	COSTUME SUGGESTIONS
25		TALOW MERLOW Private Investigator REQUIRED FLEX	Talow Merlow is a tenacious private investigator who recently moved to Gladerock. Known for sharp intuition and a no-nonsense demeanor, Talow has a knack for uncovering secrets people would rather keep hidden. Hired to investigate a local's past, Talow has recently become entangled in a web of grudges.	A trench coat, fedora, dark sunglasses, and notepad/pen are props (optional).
26		CAB VINTNER Sommelier REQUIRED FLEX	Cab Vintner is an acclaimed sommelier with impeccable taste and a sharp tongue. Known for curating exclusive wine tastings, Cab recently discovered that someone sabotaged a partnership with a prestigious winery. Cab is out for revenge, but on whom?	Crisp, formal attire – black pants/skirt, white shirt, vest, bow tie or scarf.
27		LYRIC LAVOIE Singer-Songwriter REQUIRED FLEX	Lyric Lavoie is a soulful singer-songwriter who charms audiences with heartfelt ballads. Once a regular performer at local events, Lyric was replaced by a friend of a local with half the talent. Unfortunately, Lyric hadn't saved enough cash to move to another town with more opportunities for singers.	Casual, Bohemian-style clothing. Guitar and notebook for lyrics as props (optional).
28		R. B. NOIR Ranch Owner REQUIRED FLEX	R. B. Noir owns the largest cattle ranch right outside Gladerock. A recent business deal fell apart after R. B. was accused of unethical practices. Rumor has it that R.B. has recruited an esteemed team of lawyers to find the saboteur's identity.	Plaid shirt, cowboy boots, cowboy hat. Lasso is an optional prop.
29		FRANKIE FLEX Lifestyle Blogger REQUIRED FLEX	Frankie Flex, Gladerock's renowned lifestyle blogger, has captivated millions with cutting-edge reviews and trendsetting insights. However, a scathing critique from a local during a public event triggered a dramatic decline in Frankie's social media following. Now teetering on the edge of cancellation, Frankie's once-thriving career hangs in the balance.	Trendy, avant-garde attire with statement accessories (oversized glasses, gold jewelry).
30		DEX DANE Architect REQUIRED FLEX	Dex Dane, a visionary architect celebrated for seamlessly merging modern design with natural aesthetics, is known for perfectionism and late-night sketching marathons fueled by endless espresso. Dex's crowning achievement—a breathtaking estate—became a nightmare when a client labeled it "unworthy" and withheld payment. The ordeal left Dex battling financial strain and harboring a quiet but fiery resentment beneath a composed facade.	A black turtleneck, slim pants, blueprints, and a sketch pad are optional props.
31		*CORKY TANNINS Wine Critic OPTIONAL FLEX	Corky Tannins is Gladerock's self-proclaimed connoisseur of all things vino, famous for florid metaphors and dramatic tasting performances that include swirling, sniffing, and occasionally reciting poetry inspired by the "soul" of the wine. Known for impeccable taste and a flair for theatrics, Corky's reviews can make or break a vineyard. *This character is expandable into a team of up to 25 wine-tasting advisors to Corky Tannins.	Elegant, semi-formal attire (suit, cocktail dress) with accessories in wine tones (burgundy, plum, gold).

32	VINE RIESLING Art Restorer OPTIONAL FLEX	Vine Riesling is an art restorer renowned for meticulous precision and almost obsessive attention to detail. Known for whispering apologies to artworks and labeling every tool in the studio, Vine's eccentric habits reflect a deep reverence for history and creativity. Though reserved in social settings, Vine's passion for art shines brightly when discussing restoration, captivating anyone who will listen.	Paint-splattered smock. Paintbrush and magnifying glass as props (optional).

DOWNLOADABLE VERSION:

This pack is flexible with how to use it:

- Play all 8 characters (#25-32).
- Only play the 6 required characters from this pack (#25-30).
- Only play 1-2 optional players (#31-32).
- Only play the optional players (#31-32) with up to 25+ players on the optional, expandable team with *Corky Tannins and skip the required players #25-32.
- Play all 8 players (#25-32) and the optional team with *Corky Tannins.

*Adding the team makes Corky Tannins a required player.

You can use the optional players from this pack in any combination and number with optional players from other packs (purchased separately).

BOXED KIT (PARTY PACK) SIZES:

- A 8 suspect players – 5 required
- B 16 suspect players– 5 required
- C 24 suspect players– 5 required
- D 32 suspect players– 11 required
- E 40 players: 32 suspects – 12 required, 8 team members
- F 56 players: 32 suspects– 12 required, 24 team members

HOST A LARGE PARTY WITH THIS THEME:

All packs purchased separately

- Main game: 8 suspects
- Expansion pack #1: 8 suspects
- Expansion pack #2: 8 suspects
- Expansion pack #3: 8 suspects
 - o Expandable team of 25+ non-suspect, duplicated wine-tasters (comes with expansion pack #3)

Total: 32 suspects and 25+ non-suspect team members = 57+ players.

Note: you can add more to the expandable team, but more than 32 is not advised.

Your new player pre-game site is www.yourmysteryparty.com/winetastingparty. This site includes the main game (purchased separately), expansion pack #1 (purchased separately), expansion pack #2 (purchased separately), and expansion pack #3 characters.

The expansion packs should be played in order, as the players are added to the character lists on the free invitation and pregame site in order. Do not assign character roles to your players for characters you have not purchased.

Always use the host character list from your purchased packs to assign character roles.

REQUIRED VS. OPTIONAL: You can play all 8 characters (#25-32), the 6 required characters (#25-30), or only 1-2 optional players (#31-32). You can also add the expandable team players (see below) to host a game with 55+ players (including all packs in the game, purchased separately).

Optional players from this pack or others can be mixed freely. However, avoid skipping Expansion Packs #1 and #2 entirely, as their characters appear in pre-game materials and invitations. Do not assign characters from unpurchased packs, as you won't have the materials for them. However, this is not mandatory – you can play this pack with only the main game or either expansion pack.

* EXPANDABLE TEAM (OPTIONAL): Character #31, Corky Tannins, can be a team leader of a group of wine-tasting advisors, aka Corky's employees. If you add a team, Corky becomes a required player (the 12th one). This is optional, however. The team can be skipped altogether. However, if you have over 32 players, you can add up to 25+ team members with Corky Tannins as their leader. These players will be Corky Tannin's staff – they are all advisors to Corky, a wine critic, and are wine tasters. These are duplicated, non-suspect roles that play as a team with Corky. They have all the same materials as the rest of the players, however. This is an excellent way to incorporate more players into your game and give them a role instead of just having them as spectators. This allows you to host a large group game without having too many suspects to investigate in round two. There is an additional file on your order for this pack for this team file. Print as many copies of this file as you will have players on the team. Also, print an investigation sheet from the main game's printable file for each player.

BOXED SET: The addition of characters #25-30 increases the number of required players to 11 required if you purchase the boxed set (party pack) Kit D (32-suspect player game).

With Kits E and F, you'll have all 32 suspects in the game plus varying numbers of Corky's staff members. Corky becomes a required player, making 12 required players for kits E and F.
